A warm welcome to Fr. Andrien Longchamps who is assisting me this weekend and to Fr. Roger Bildodeau who will be covering the weekday Masses for the next two weeks. Fr. Marcel Allard will be covering the weekend Masses next weekend. Initially this coverage was set up so that I could go on vacation but because of my surgery it works out just as well. After a doctor visit on Monday things are looking good but we have a long journey yet.

Conference on the Eucharist will be held on November 7th, from 9:00 AM to 5:00 PM at Ste. Marie Parish, Manchester, NH. The cost is $20 per person ($25 after Oct. 23rd) $60 per family, includes the conference, continental breakfast, lunch, and after-dinner concert by Magdalen College Choir. Bishop John McCormack will celebrate Mass at 4:00 PM. Dinner will be available before the concert for an additional low cost. For more information and to register go to: www.NHEuchConf2009.com

SHANTYTOWN

$10,800.00

A heartfelt "Thank You" to everyone who participated in, helped with or donated to Shantytown this year.

Despite the state of the economy, this year's efforts raised $10,800 enabling us to give $1800 to each of the six selected charities. This year's funds went to St Patrick Food Pantry, Pelham Good Neighbor Fund, Anne-Marie House, Nashua Children's Home, Lowell Transitional Living Center and Harbor Homes.

The statistics associated with the underprivileged population are staggering, but your compassion and generosity have helped to chip away at those figures by offering hope and support for some of those within our reach.

It is truly amazing to see what a small group of determined people can accomplish when backed by equally concerned friends and neighbors.

I am very grateful for your help and kindness, and especially for your belief that as a community we can continue to make a difference to those less fortunate than we are.

With sincere thanks, Cheryl Brunelle
