WORLDWIDE MARRIAGE ENCOUNTER

Ephesians 5:21-22, 25-26, 28: "Be subordinate to one another out of reverence for Christ. Wives should be subordinate to their husbands as to the Lord. Husbands, love your wives, even as Christ loved the church and handed himself over for her to sanctify her. He who loves his wife loves himself." The call of marriage is to love, to be at peace with one another, to live according to God's will. Check out a Worldwide Marriage Encounter Experience today. You can find one by looking up

WWME.org. Some of the dates to sign up are:

CREATION CORNER: Last weekend we read in Eph 5: 15 - 20, that Paul gives the Ephesians a clear summary of how to live a Christian life: "Watch carefully how you live...making the most of the opportunity...try to understand what is the will of the Lord." It is a lot easier to cruise through life snuggled into our comfort zone, on autopilot. It is easier to avoid rather than to seek opportunities to serve. And it is definitely easier to pursue our will, rather than God's will. May we practice Paul's advice as we listen to the cry of the Earth and the cry of the poor.

CREATE A LEGACY

Be a part of ensuring the future of our Church

In dealing with the most important questions of where our resources will go after we are not around to manage them, it is important to have a plan. When making these future plans, consider making a legacy gift to St. Patrick Parish and make an impact on our future ministries and the Catholic faith. With a simple bequest in your will or estate plan, you can make a significant difference in the future of our parish for generations to come. For more information about how to include St. Patrick's Catholic Church in your will, please contact Fr. Von or Therese Soucy in the parish office.
